

Entire abstract should be in 12 pitch with no more than 300 words.

Quality of Life in Adults with Spinal Cord Injury Title should be in title case and bold

Space

James C. Spelling, M.D.¹; Carol J. Turgeon, Ph.D.²; Sophia R. Overcast, M.D.; Kathy P. Womack, PT All authors listed with semicolon between authors with superscript to identify institution affiliation

SPACE

¹Silver Hospital, Chicago, IL; ²Fresh Medical College, Atlanta, GA; ³Gold University, Miami, FL Superscripts in front of institution, semicolon in between each institution.

SPACE

Objective: Determine factors and impact on participation and quality of life in adults with spinal cord injury (SCI).

The word Objective with colon must be on the abstract and in bold letters

SPACE

Design: Prospective telephone surveys The word Design with colon must be on the abstract and in bold letters

SPACE

Participants/methods: Individuals who sustained SCI as an adult. Structured interview and standardized measures: Functional Independence Measure (FIM).....etc...

The words Participants/methods with colon must be on the abstract and in bold letters

SPACE

Results: 307 subjects were interviewed with mean age at injury.....etc..... The word Results with colon must be on the abstract and in bold letters

SPACE

Conclusion: Secondary complications are.....etc..... The word Conclusion with colon must be on the abstract and in bold letters

Support: This project was funded as a NIDRR MultiCenter Collaborative Trial #P374564980468 Any funding that is reported on the financial disclosure form must be listed here.